

Troubled Mind

Oh come ease my troubled mind

It's all written in stone how we should live all along now I am wracked to the bone some say I am done for, oh no.

Trouble still precedes me I close my eyes so I cannot be him.

*In a sky that still blue shadows hanging unto you trouble won't leave me alone Cast a spell that's on me mother luck ran out on me
trouble won't leave me alone*

Oh come ease my troubled mind

*Always just behind tap on your shoulder whisper in your mind.
Mother comfort me can't you see I am not free. Oh no, oh no.*

*In a sky that so blue
shadows hanging unto you
trouble won't leave me alone
Cast a spell that's on me
mother luck ran out on me
trouble won't leave me alone*

trouble won't leave me alone
Cast a spell that's on me
trouble won't leave me alone.*

Love don't leave me far behind.

Angels are surrounding me maybe as the case maybe can't you see I am in trouble I am in trouble

trouble won't leave me alone.
Cast a spell that's on me
trouble won't leave me alone.(rep)*
